

Catch this.

Nothing is more satisfying than getting the perfect cast off. To ensure you don't get caught in a bad situation, stay clear of electrical equipment and never cast fishing lines under power lines. When walking, carry your rod low and keep an eye out for low or downed lines. If you see a downed line, stay at least 10 feet away and call 911.

NorthWestern[®]
Energy

Delivering a Bright Future

Ben C.
Safety Professional, 4 years of service